Capt Dodd Surrounds a Village and 200 Insurgents.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Manila, April 16—Capt. Dodd, with a squadron of the third cavalry, recently surrounded a village in Bengat Province and surprised two hundred insurgents living in Barracks apparently recruiting in the centre of the province. The enemy lost fifty-three killed. The troops also captured fifty-four men and burned the village. One American was wounded.

SOME OF YESTERDAY'S SERVICES

SERMONS AND OTHER KIND OF EXERCISES.

Some Handsome Collections—Several Musical Features.

As announced in the Telegram Saturday, Easter was observed at West Market church yesterday morning by appropriate exercises conducted by the Sunday school. The singing was good and the remarks by Prof. Claxton, the superintendent, on the need and work of the Sunday school were in perfect harmony with the occasion. Another feature was the collection taken by the pastor for the conference claimants, in which a good sum was raised The singing by the choir was enjoyed, especially Miss Lola Carraway's solo, "The Resurrection."

The evening hour was given to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, which held a service in the interest of the Twentieth Century thank offering fund. The program, consisting of recitations, songs and responsive readings was very interesting. The recitation by several children telling of life in China was very good. Two young ladies from Greensboro Female College took part, Miss Martha Dozier, who read a selection "The Wail of the Women," and Miss Mayfield Cole who recited "The Century Hymn" Mrs. Lucy H Robertson, president of the Conference Society, made a short talk relative to the work, its ends, and aims, after which a collection was taken amounting to about seven hundred dollars.

Mr. C. H. Ireland made a very touching talk in contributing $100 to the movement. The contribution, he said, paid for a life membership in the society for Mrs. Ireland, and was given in memory of their little daughter, whom he had designed to give to God for mission work, but whom God, in his wisdom and love, had taken to himself in heaven instead, and since God had done this he knew of no better use to which he could put the money.

GRACE CHURCH.

The Easter program yesterday morning was very successfully carried out and the committee in charge of the preparations were well pleased at the result of their labors. The music was bright well rendered, and the children acquitted themselves admirably, both in recitation and song.

The evening service consisted of an address by the pastor on the death and resurrection of Christ and the intermediate events, illustrated by views from the stereoptican. The opening anthem was "Christ the Lord is risen today" by Dudley Buck. "The Holy City," sung by Mrs. Teague, and illustrated by stereoptican views, was an enjoyable feature of the service.

The pastor, Rev. Mr. Johnson, has returned after a few weeks rest, much improved in health, for which the church is thankful.

WEST WASHINGTON STREET

Yesterday the pastor preached on the subject of foreign missions. The evening sermon was a continuation of the morning one, the first one treating of missions as set forth in God's Word, and the last as shown in His providences. The missionary commands of the scriptures were set forth very earnestly. An envelope collection was taken after the morning service, amounting to $130. In the evening service Pastor Johnson stated that he was greatly uplifted by the results of the morning collection. He had expected and hoped to raise $100 in this collection, whereas it amounted to $130, and he knew of some more yet to be given His encouragement was so real that it seemed to be shown in every word of the evening discourse, which was a most fervent as well as an able effort.

As an offertory at the morning service Miss Minnie Jamison of the State Normal sang "Consolation."

ST. BARNABAS CHURCH.

This was bright with bloom, and glad with song yesterday—Easter. The program of the music given in Saturday's issue, was carried out at the mid-day service. The solos in the Te Deum of Messrs. McAdoo and Hill being especially fine, while Miss Clary's rendition of the Resurrection was worthy of her magnificent voice. In the afternoon the services and another most admirable sermon were interrupted by the pastor's being overcome with the heat in the chancel.

ST ANDREWS.

At the beginning of Lent St. Andrews church owed a debt of $1,'00, which had to be paid by Easter. Naturally the members of the congregation, and their many friends with them, rejoiced when Mr. Miller the rector announced yesterday morning that their hopes had been more than realized, the amount raised being $1,218.98. It was in honor of this that Dudley Buck's Festival Te Deum was sung. Nothing could have been more in keeping with the spirit of the occasion, and its perfect rendition was due in fact to this happy inspiration.

A FIGHTING OPERATOR

Wanted to Paste a Gentleman For Dubbing Him a Scab.

High Point, April 16—Messrs Will Crawford, J. Eugene Thompson and Vivian Parker came up from Greensboro yesterday, Wm. P. Bynum, of Greensboro, was here yesterday.

J. L. Armfield cashier of the Bank of Thomasville, spent Easter Sunday here.

Appropriate Easter exercises were held at the M. E. Church last night, consisting of songs and recitations.

Miss Ida Beeson spent the day with relatives yesterday.

Dr. and Mrs. E. L. Stamey and children came up from Greensboro Saturday night and remained over Sunday with relatives.

Yesterday was a beautiful day and many took advantage of the pretty weather by going out in the country. Out of the five livery stables in town there was not a team could be had.

Work on the High Point Mantel and table factory is progressing finely.

Tonight at the opera house "Rebecca's Triumph" will be presented by the school girls.

We hear on what seems to be good authority that the operator who came here from the north to do night work the other day heard a man repeating a remauk made by some one "that he was a scab," whereupon he "flew" out of the house and was about to "paste" the fellow one. He seems to be possessed of better fighting qualities than the young man who came up from Pamona.

Several of the boys went over to Winston this morning to take in the festivities of the day.

THREE CHILDREN BURNED.

More Than One Hundred People Witness The Scene.

Savannah, Ga., April 14—Primus, Lawrence and William Williams, colored, aged respectively 5 years, 2 years and 6 months, were burned alive last night in plain view of more than 100 persons who were powerless to rescure them. The mother of the children left them alone while she went to make a call. There was no fire in the house, not even a lighted lamp, when she left. But there was a box of matches on a table and the eldest boy was awake.

The woman had been gone only a few moments when screams from the house attracted attention and it was found to be in flames. The children were plainly seen inside by the crowd which quickly gathered, but being surrounded by four walls of fire it was impossible to do anything for them. In sight of the spectators, therefore, they were literally cremated alive. In half an hour after the mother left them only quivering chunks of flesh remained of the children.

Mrs. Dewy is Blamed.

Chicago Record.

A few weeks ago a Washington society paper published a cartoon which excited a great deal of comment because so many people recognized it as an accruate representation of a painful fact. Admiral Dewey was represented sitting upon a high stool. A woman who bore a striking resemblance to Mrs. Dewey had already removed a laurel wreath from his brow and had substituted a fools cap. She had divested him of his sword and sash which lay on a chair near by, and had girded him with a spangled belt of mock diamonds and jingling bells and was removing his apaulets and other insigna of rank and the medals and decorations that covered his breast and concealing his uniform with fantastic decorations and furbelows like those worn by a clown in a circus. The picture was passed around everywhere and now everybody says that it contained more truth than humor.

WILL THE POWERS INTERFERE?

THURSDAY ROBERTS WILL BEGIN HIS MARCH NORTHWARD

Has Sufficient Troops to Guard His Lines of Communication Without Weakening His Main Army.

By Wire to the Telegram.

Capetown, April 16.—General Roberts has completed his preparations to advance towards Kronstadt. Thursday next is the day set for the march northward. Although no official announcement has yet been made, the army will number eighty thousand, twenty-five thousand of whom are cavalry and mounted infantry. With over one hundred and fifty thousand troops in Cape Colony and the Free State, Roberts will have ample force to guard his line of communication without detaching troops from his strong army for that purpose.

TO INTERVENE.

Brussels, April 16 —A rumor is circulated by a Dutch official that nine signatory powers of The Hague conference contemplate urging intervention between Great Britain and the South African republic, and that efforts will be made to hasten the establishment of an international tribunal at the Hague.

Made of the Right Stuff.

Boston Transcript.

Some months ago there appeared at the Standard Oil refinery at Bayonne, N. J., a quiet, decent young fellow who minded his own business, worked hard, fed him elf sparingly and spent his nights in a mean lodging house with books. The men did not know at first what to make of him, but after awhile they learned what he was up to and they took up a collection of $5 00. When they offered this money to him he was moved, but he absolutely refused to accept it, for he knew that they had families, and as he was a mechanic's helper he was making $9 a week, so that he would not starve. The horney handed company reluctantly but admiringly put their self back into their pockets. For this day, laborer in greasy overalls was a Harvard student, who was earning enough to carry him through another term, and if you go to Cambridge you shall find him there, grinding away at his studies and making a specialty of political economy. And can any one doubt that he will make a success in life?

General Joubert.

Died March 27, 1900.

With those that bred, with those that loosed, the strife
He had no part, whose hands were clean of gain
But subtle, strong and stubborn, gave his life
To a lost cause, and knew the gift was vain.
Later shall rise a people sane and great,
Forged in strong fires, by equal war made one,
Telling old battles over without hate,
Noblest his name shall pass from sire to son.
He shall not meet the onsweep of our men
In the doomed city when we close the score;
Yet o'er his grave—his grave that holds a man—
Our deep-tongued guns shall answer his once more.
Rudyard Kipling.

FOR THE BABIES.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucous, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

DON'T MAKE HIM A MONSTER.

If there is any one thing in the whole range of current politics which the Telegram believes in as firmly as it believes in the existence of the universe, it is that the enactment into law of the proposed amendment to the constitution of North Carolina would work out inestimable benefits to both races. While no one denies that the measure is aimed at the political privileges of the negro, we have from the very beginning believed it to be more in friendship than in hatred for him. We have therefore taken the position that the campaign, from its nature harsh and bitter, should not be made unnecessarily so. It is with pleasure that we note that so influential a newspaper as the Charlotte Observer in this connection makes this very clear statement:

Before the campaign opens we would caution Democratic speakers against unnecessary violence of denunciation in their discussion of the constitutional amendment. The white people of North Carolina know the negro—he has no business in politics and is soon to get out; but he is not the worst possible laborer or citizen, and he is not a whit worse now than he was before this proposition was made to disfranchise him. The presentation of exaggerated views of his vices and deficiencies will not fool the white people among whom he lives, nor add anything to the strength of the amendment, while it will not improve his temper nor make a better man of him. He is ignorant and misguided, and for the reason that he uniformly votes against the interest of the white man and his own he should not be permitted to vote at all; but it isn't worth while to paint him any blacker than he is for every effective point in favor of the amendment—and there are many—can be made within the boundary of truth and justice. It is enough that the black man has no due sense of his responsibility as a voter. That is sufficient reason for his disfranchisement whithout representing him as such a monster as the white people among whom he lives know him not to be.

We count it especially fortunate that in so critical a time, the party proposing to enact this measure has put so fine a man at the head of its ticket as its present candidate for Governor. We feel sure that if Mr. Aycock's lead is followed the campaign will be divested as far as possible of its bitterness. He has shown himself eminently capable of pitching the subject upon the broad plateau of public good and necessity, not upon the low plane of race hatred and prejudice. Of course the negro race will require years to reach the decision that this measure is for its own good as well as for that of the white race, but it is not too much to hope that they may some time do this. In the meantime they may be excused for coming to the natural conclusion that persons who make such statements are hypocritical and insincere.

If the exposition is not a success, it will not be on account of a scarcity of visitors By the way, what has become of the boycott of the exposition on account of Capt. Dreyfus, about which we heard so much last fall?—Charlotte Observer.

Why, gone to join the innumerable caravan of the idiotic schemes that have gone before

The Cigarette Suicide

Charlotte Observer.

Rev. Ira Kimmel, pastor of a Christian church in Washington City, took "Suicide" as the subject of his sermon last Sunday, and though he made several deliverances to which no man of sense will subscribe, he delivered himself of one sentence that is worthy of consideration and which should be pasted in the Easter derbys of the rising generation. After speaking of the various forms of suicide, Rev. Kimmel asked if there is any difference between killing one's self immediately or in thirty years? "The first person I will pay my respects to," said he, "is the cigarette smoker. Of all despicable habits this is the worst and most miserable way of committing suicide. Young men addicted to this habit might as well go out into the middle of a ten-acre lot and blow out their brains, for one is as sure death as the other.

The step leading to the morphine habit, he further contended, is suicide pure and simple, and who can gainsay him? This is putting the question in a new light, but is it not the correct one? Those who have been constant readers of the daily papers for the past few years, now that their attention has been called to it, will be able to recall about one cigarette suicide to about every third victim of the pistol, rope or river. The bullet gets in its work immediately. The cigarette is slower, but equally as sure. There is food for thought in this for the young men.

Cronje on St. Helena.

St. Helena, April 14—General Cronje, his wife and three of his staff of the former Boer Commando, who with other Boer prisoners, arrived here on the Niobe and Wilke, April 10, were landed today, accompanied by Colonel Reef. They were met by the Governor and Commander-in-chief at St. Helena His excellency, Robert Sterndale, at the castle, where the party remained for an hour, afterwards proceeding to the Kent building.

General Cronje looks well and appears cheerful. The other Boer prisoners will disembark Monday.

"JIMMY" LIKES THE TRIP.

Says He'll Find Kruger If He Has to Go to St. Helena.

New York Dispatch 9th.

James Francis Smith, the messenger boy who has started for Pretoria to deliver to President Kruger the message from the school boys of Philadelphia, lives in Brooklyn.

He has never been on a long journey, but he accepted the order to go to Pretoria with the true nonchalance of a young American. "Jimmy" was sitting in the company's office in the cable building on Broadway today when the superintendent went to him and said:

"How would you like to go to Pretoria with a message to President Kruger?"

"Very much, sir," said Jimmy.

"Can you start at once?"

"Yes, sir."

"Have you any fear of not being able to get there?"

"No, sir."

"Suppose you find that President Kruger is at St. Helena when you arrive at Pretoria, what will you do then?"

"Take the message to him at St. Helena," said Jimmy.

"Do you know where St. Helena is?"

"Oh, yes, it's the place where the English put Napoleon."

This was satisfactory and Jimmy was ordered to get ready for the long trip. After receiving this order he quietly sat down and waited his turn with the other boys.

Jimmy's parents have consented to let the boy undertake the trip, as he is brave and able to care for himself.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY.

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine, and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the throat, chest and lungs are surely cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, and get a trial bottle free, Regular size 50 and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

"Faust."

The Labadie Faust company, which will present the famous drama, Faust, at the academy of music tomorrow night, is probably the only company of its kind on the road this season carrying two sets of scenery. They have a large and a small set so they can give a complete performance on any sized stage. They also carry all the electrical effects, switch board, lamps, wires, etc., necessrry for this grand electrical spectacular production.—Adv.

DOES IT PAY TO BUY CHEAP?

A cheap remedy for coughs and colds is all right, but you want something that will relieve and cure the more severe and dangerous results of throat and lung troubles. What shall you do? Go to a warmer and more regular climate? Yes, if possible; if not possible for you, then in either case take the only remedy that has been introduced in all civilized countries with success in severe throat and lung troubles, "Boschee's German Syrup." It not only heals and stimulates the tissues to destroy the germ disease, but allays inflammation, causes easy expectoration, gives a good night's rest, and cures the patient. Try one bottle. Recommended many years by all druggists in the world. For sale by Grissom & Fo rd ham.

ROBBED THE GRAVE

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows; "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides; no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately, a friend advised trying Electric Bitters: and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life, and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

RHEUMATISM—CATARRAH—DISEASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments, doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucuous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure and so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

PLEASING is the result gotten from Premo Hawkeye and cyclene Cameras. All kinds of supplies. Moore Opt. Co.

"No family can afford to be without One Minute Cough Cure. It will stop a cough and cure a cold quicker than any other medicine," writes C. W. Williams, Sterling Run, Pa. It cures croup, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles and prevents consumption Pleasant and harmless. Howard Gardner.

CONTAGIOUS BLOOD POISON

Contagious Blood Poison is the most degrading and destructive of all diseases, as it vitiates and corrupts the entire system. The first sore or ulcer is followed by little red pimples on the body, mouth and throat become sore, the glands enlarge and inflame, copper colored splotches appear, and hair and eyebrows fall out. These are some of the milder symptoms; they increase in severity, finally attacking the vital organs; the body is tortured with rheumatic pains and covered with offensive eating sores.

It is a peculiar poison, and so highly contagious that an innocent person handling the same articles used by one infected with this loathsome disease, may be inoculated with the virus. It can be transmitted from parent to child, appearing as the same disease or in a modified form—like Eczema or Scrofula.

Many an old sore or stubborn skin trouble appearing in middle life, is due and traceable to blood poison contracted in early life. You may have taken potash and mercury faithfully for two or three years and thought you were cured, but you were not, for these poisonous minerals never cure this disease; they drive it from the outside, but it is doing its work on the inside, and will show up again sooner or later. You may not recognize it as the same old taint, but it is. S. S. S. has cured thousands of cases of Contagious Blood Poison, and it will cure you. It is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known, and the only antidote for this poison. S. S. S. cleanses the blood thoroughly of every particle of the poison—there is never any return of the disease.

Mrs. T. W. Lee, Montgomery, Ala., writes: "Several years ago I was inoculated with poison by a diseased nurse, who infected my baby, and for six long years I suffered untold misery. My body was covered with sores and ulcers. Several physicians treated me, but all to no purpose. The mercury and potash they gave me seemed to add fuel to the awful flame which was devouring me. Friends advised me to try S. S. S. I began taking it and improved from the start, and a complete and perfect cure [illegible] result."

CURE YOURSELF AT HOME.

Send for our Home Treatment book, which gives a history of the disease in all stages, and is the result of many years of close study of blood poison and actual experience in treating it. You can cure yourself perfectly and permanently at home, and your secret is your own. Should you need any information or medical advice at any time, write to our physicians. They have made a life study of blood diseases, and will give your letter prompt and careful attention. Consult them as often as you please; we make no charge whatever for this service. All correspondence is conducted in the strictest confidence.

REMARKABLE CURE OF RHEUMATISM.

Kenna, Jackson Co., W. Va.

About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for over a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance, her limbs being swollen double their normal size. Mr. S. Maddox insisted on my using Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I purchased a fifty-cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a single attack since.—A B. Parsons. For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

No, Maude dear, when we speak of the leading man of a theatrical company we don't refer to the one who conducts the orchestra.

PREVENTED A TRAGEDY.

Timely information given Mrs. George Long, of New Straitsville, O., prevented a dreadful tragedy and saved two lives. A frightful cough had kept her awake every night. She tried many remedies and doctors but steadily grew worse until urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle cured her, and she writes this marvelous medicine also cured Mr. Long of a severe attack of pneumonia. Such cures are positive proof of the matchless merit of this grand remedy for curing all throat, chest and lung troubles. Only 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed. Trial bottles free at C. E Holton's drug store.

"How shall I take the chills and fever medicine?" asked the man who suffers from ague. "Shake before taking," replied the druggist.

HIS LIFE WAS SAVED.

Mr. J. E. Lilly, a prominent citizen of Hannibal, Mo., lately had a wonderful deliverance from death. In telling of it he says: "I was taken with typhoid fever that ran into pneumonia. My lungs became hardened. I was so weak I couldn't even sit up in bed. Nothing helped me. I expected to soon die of consumption, when I heard of Dr. King's New Discovery. One bottle gave great relief. I continued to use it and now am well and strong. I can't say too much in its praise." This marvellous medicine is the surest and quickest cure in the world for all throat and lung trouble. Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store; every bottle guaranteed.

Lots of people get through life on self-assurance. Even the bearded lady of museum fame wouldn't stand much of a show if it wasn't for her cheek.

A LIFE AND DEATH FIGHT

Mr. W. A. Hines, of Manchester, Iowa, writing of his almost miraculous escape from death says: "Exposure after measles induced serious lung trouble, which ended in consumption. I had frequent hemorrhages and coughed night and day. All my doctors said I must soon die. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which completely cured me. I would not be without it even it cost $5 a bottle. Hundreds have used it on my recommendation and all say it never fails to cure throat, chest and lung troubles." Regular size 50 cents and $1.00. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Subburbs—"Did you get many replies to your advertisement for a cook?" Hubbubs—"Didn't get any. You see, I made the mistake of advertising for a plain cook instead of a cook to do plain cooking."

W. W. Mayhew, Merton, Wis., says, "I consider One Minute Cough Cure a most wonderful medicine, quick and safe." It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe, whooping cough, pneumonia and all throat and lung diseases. It's early use prevents consumption. Children always like it and mothers endorse it. Howard Gardner.

Hoax—"Painless dentistry is comparatively new, isn't it?" Joax—"Not much It dates back to the Spanish Inquisition."

INVEST 5 Per Cent

WITH US AND SAVE 500 PER CENT

A Little Problem in PER CENT.

You are building a house to cost, fitted up with common hardware and mantels say $2,000. Substitute fine builders hardware, hardwood mantels, handsome grates and tiles at an additional cost of say $100.00. Total cost $2100.00, or 5 per cent more than originally allowed.

Then compare the two and decide if your home, with the fine Hardware, Mantels, etc., is not worth fully $2500.00 to sell, to rent or to live in. That means the increase in value is 25 per cent of the original cost, or 500 per cent of the extra cost If you don't accept our method of figuring, call to see our handsome lines and then decide for yourself.

The baby's coming is often looked forward to as a time of dread and danger. Many women are physically unfit to become mothers. They are sick and weak in a womanly way and may well look with fear toward the time of maternity. Intelligent preparation for this time is most essential. An athlete "trains" for months before his trial. Most women do not "train" at all and yet their trial is to be fifty times as severe as the athlete's.

During the period of gestation every woman should use every means to strengthen the organs that are to be tried. They should be kept in perfect health. The faintest symptom of disorder or disease should be promptly eliminated.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is designed to do this very thing—has been doing it for over thirty years. It is the one sure medicine for all female complaints. It is the only medicine that may be absolutely depended upon to practically abolish the pain and danger of childbirth. It is the only preparation of its kind that is the invention of a regularly graduated physician—a skilled and experienced specialist in the cure of diseases of women.

Mrs. Emerson Allen, of Dorset, Ontario Co., Ont., writes: "I was in very poor health for a long time dating from the birth of my little girl. I tried different doctors and different medicines. I took four bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and seem to be perfectly well again."

FRANK D. JONES, Superintendent

ROBERT HARDY'S SEVEN DAYS

A DREAM AND ITS CONSEQUENCES.

By Rev. CHARLES M. SHELDON.

Author of "In His Steps," "The Crucifixion of Philip Strong," "Malcom Kirk," Etc.

[Copyright, 1900, by Advance Publishing Co.]

CHAPTER XII.

Alice, with the quickness of thought that always characterized her, planned that all the rest should go to church while she remained with Clara. Will was able to go out now. So, for the first time in months, Robert and his wife and Bess and the two boys sat together in the same seat. George had not been to church for a year, and Will was very irregular in his attendance.

The opening services seemed especially impressive and beautiful to Mr. Hardy. He wondered how he had ever dared sit and criticise Mr. Jones and the way he had of reading the hymns. To be sure, he was not a perfect speaker, but his love for his people and his great love for men and his rare good life every day were so well known that they ought to have counted for more than they ever did.

It is astonishing how many good deeds and good men pass through this world unnoticed and unappreciated, but every evil deed is caught up and magnified and criticised by press and people until it seems as if the world must be a very wicked place indeed and the good people very scarce indeed.

Mr. Hardy joined in the service with a joy unknown to him for years. He had come to it from the reading of his Bible instead of the reading of the morning paper and from prayer instead of from thoughts of his business or a yawning stroll through his library. His mind was receptive of the best things in the service. He entered into it with the solemn feeling that it was his last.

And when the minister gave out the text, "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that every man may receive the things done in his body, whether they be good or bad," he started and leaned forward intently, feeling that the message of the preacher was for him and him alone and strangely appropriate for his own peculiar condition. The first statement of the sermon arrested his attention and held him to the argument irresistibly to the end:

"The judgment seat of Christ will not be a dreadful place to a man whose sins have been forgiven in this world, but if he comes up to it seamed and scarred and stained with sins unrepented of and unforgiven because he has not asked God to forgive him it will be a place of awful fear to his soul. There are men here in this audience who are as ready to die now as they ever will be. They have made their peace with God. They have no quarrel with their neighbors. Their accounts are all square in business. They are living in loving relations with the home circle. They have no great burdens of remorse or regret weighing them down, and if God should call them this minute to step up to the judgment seat they would be ready.

"But there are other men here who are not at all ready for such a tremendous event. They may think they are, but they are mistaken. How can they stand before the greatest being in all the universe and have no fear when they are unprepared to answer his questions: 'Why did you not confess me before men? Why did you not do as I commanded and bear the burdens of the work instead of pleasing yourself?' What will the man say then?

"It is true that Christ is all merciful, all loving. But will it make no difference with a soul whether it comes up to his judgment seat out of a life of selfish ease and indulgence or out of a life of self sacrifice and restraint? When every possible offer of mercy is held out to men on earth and they will not accept it, will it be all the same as if they had when they come before the judgment seat of Christ? Why, that would be to mock at the meaning of the incarnation and the atonement. It would be to cast scorn and contempt on the agony in the garden and the crucifixion. It would make unnecessary all the prayer and preaching. What possible need is there that men preach a gospel of salvation unless there is danger of the opposite?

"If we are all going to be saved anyway, no matter whether we accept God's love in Christ or not, what use is the church? And why should we be anxious any more about our children? And what difference does it make whether they go to the bad here in this world if in the world to come they will all be saved? For eternity will be so much grander and sweeter and enduring than time that we might as well take it easy here and not pay much attention to the message, 'God so loved the world'—that is, if we are going to be saved anyway.

"Why should we care very much if it does say in the revelation of God's word that the wicked shall go away into everlasting punishment if we don't believe it? Why, the wicked will stand just as good a chance of eternal glory as the good if the judgment seat of Christ does not mean a separation of the good from the bad. Let us close our churches and go home. Let us eat and drink and dance and be merry, for tomorrow we may die; and after death the judgment, and after the judgment glory and joy and power and peace and life eternal in the presence of God.

"It is true we scorned him on earth, but that won't make any difference; he will receive us just the same. It is true we refused to believe in his only begotten Son after all he suffered of shame and agony for us, but that makes no difference; he will say, 'Enter into the joy of thy Lord.' It is true we made fun of Christians and mocked at prayer and sneered at faith, but that is not much to be afraid of. It is true we hated our neighbor and would not forgive an insult, but that is a little thing. It is true when the Holy Spirit pleaded with us a year or six months ago to confess Christ in public we told him to leave us; we were ashamed to do it in the presence of men, to confess him who spread out his arms on a cross of bitterest agony for us, but for all that we feel sure that when we march up to the judgment seat of Christ he will treat us just the same as he treats the disciples who have laid down their lives for the Master.

"Then let us tear out of the Bible every line that speaks of retribution or punishment or judgment—for we don't like those passages; they hurt our feelings—and let us leave only those words that speak of love and mercy and forgiveness, for those words are the only ones that can be true, for those words don't make us feel uncomfortable.

"Away with everything that hurts our feelings, that makes us anxious, that sends us to our knees in prayer, that makes us confess Christ and live a life of self denial and service, for when the judgment seat is prepared and Christ sits down there and we appear before him he will receive us as we come before him—the pure and the impure, the selfish and the proud and the humble and the believer and the disbeliever and infidels and scoffers and cowards and despisers of God's love on the earth, all the class of men who fell back on weak and imperfect Christians as an excuse for their own weak lives, and the drunkards and the liars and the oppressors of the poor, and everybody who heard a thousand sermons full of gospel and despised them because of some imperfection in the delivery or elocution, and all those men who went through the earth betrayers of the home, and the selfish politicians who betrayed their country, and all the men who read the Bible and believe only the parts that didn't hurt their sensitive feelings, and the young men who lived fast lives and sowed wild oats because a wicked and false public sentiment made them think it was excusable and perhaps necessary, and all the other men and women who lived as they pleased, regardless of God and eternity. When all these shall appear before the judgment seat of Christ, he will behold them all as one soul and with a smile of gracious pardon will reach out his almighty arm and sweep them all alike into a heaven of eternal bliss, there to reign with him in glory and power, world without end!

"But is this what Christ taught the world? Suppose what we have said is true. It turns his whole life into a splendid mockery. Foolishness and absurdity could go no further than to create a life like his and to put into his mouth such teachings as we have received if at the judgment seat all souls, regardless of their acts in this world, are received on an equal footing and all received into eternal life. And where is there any room in the teachings of Christ for a purgatory? Do we believe that? Is it not the plain teaching that after the judgment the destiny of souls is fixed forever?

"But what could man wish more? Will he not have opportunity enough to accept the mercy of God before that time? Does he not have opportunity? If any soul appears at last and at the judgment complains that he did not have a fair chance, will that gracious Judge condemn him if his complaint be true? We know he will not. But the facts of the judgment are these: At that time, whenever it is, the souls of men will be passed for their acts in the earthly life, a verdict that will determine their everlasting destiny, and that verdict will be just and it will be merciful. For the crucified one could not do otherwise. But the men who have despised and neglected and disbelieved and confessed shall be separated from him forever, and the men who have confessed and believed and tried to live like him shall be in his presence continually.

"There will be a division of souls. It will not be based on wealth or position or birth or education or genius, but on Christlikeness—on that divine and eternal thing we call character. Everything else shall go away into destruction, into death, into punishment, into banishment from God. And banishment from God will be hell, and it will be a hell not made by God, but by man himself, who had an opportunity—nay, a thousand opportunities—every day of his life to accept the bliss of heaven and of his own selfish choice rejected every one of them and went to his own place.

"But some soul starts up and says: 'You are not preaching the gospel; you are preaching fear, hell, torments. Is this your boasted love of God?' Yes; for what am I preaching if not the love of God when I say, 'God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life?' Is there no danger of perishing? Why did Christ come then? Why did he say the things he did? Why did he speak of the condemnation of the wicked and unbelieving if that were not a part of the gospel?

"The gospel is glad tidings, but what makes it glad tidings? Because of the danger we are in. What is salvation? It is the opposite of being lost. We cannot have one without the other. So I am preaching the gospel here today when I say, 'We must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ!' There will be no fear to us then if we believe in him, if we have lived his life here, if the things done in the body are good. And, more than that, as long as this earth life continues God's mercy is with us every moment.

"It is possible some soul is here who for years has lived selfishly within his own little toys of pleasure. He looks back on a life of uselessness, of neglect of all that Christ did for him. He this day hears the voice of God. He listens, he repents, he cries out, smiting on his breast, 'God be merciful to me, a sinner!' Then what will God do? Will he accept him because he is old in sin, because he has wasted beautiful years? When he appears before the judgment seat, will Christ say: 'You repented too late on earth. You cannot be saved now?'

"No! Even if after 100 years of shame and sin a soul with its outgoing breath in genuine repentance and faith in the Son of God cries out for mercy that cry would be answered, and he would be saved. What less of glory and power such a soul may experience in the realms of glory we may not be able to tell. But he himself will be saved.

"Is not God merciful, then? Let no man depart from this house of God fearful or despairing. The earthly life is full from beginning to close with the love of an Almighty Father. Shall men complain because they cannot have all of this life and all of the other, too, in which to repent and be forgiven? 'Now is the accepted time; now is the day of salvation.' 'Today if ye will hear his voice harden not your hearts.'

"Men of Barton, you have heard the word of God proclaimed from this desk today. Young men, will you wait until you are old in sin and shame before you will repent and be saved? How do you know you will live to be old men? And what a life to live, even if you were sure of a hundred years, to pour out the dregs at last as an offering to Christ just to escape hell! Oh, all men, hear ye this day the message of Christ! He is a Saviour of sinners. It is not necessary that any man go away from this service unsaved. You may believe here and now. Won't you do it? 'Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ and thou shalt be saved.' Then go home and pray, rejoicing.

"And if the Almighty call you out and away from this prison of clay into his resplendent presence this very night what will you have to fear? Not one thing. You have put your trust in him. Your sins are all forgiven. You can appear before his judgment seat and await your verdict with a calm and joyful soul, for you know as you gaze into the loving countenance of your Redeemer and Judge that when he turns and speaks to you he will say, 'Come, ye beloved of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.' Truly God is love!"

The prayer that followed the sermon seemed to bring all the souls in the church very close to God. The events of the past week had stirred the town deeply. The awful disaster so near them, the speech of Mr. Hardy in the town hall, rumors of the experience he was having—all these had prepared the audience for just such a sermon on Sunday morning. And men bowed their heads and prayed in that house who had not done such a thing sincerely in many years.

Robert had many inquiries concerning himself and Clara to answer at the close of the service. He finally went up and thanked the minister for what he had said and spoke as he never had spoken before in encouragement of his pastor's work. But it seemed to him that he must be getting home. The time was growing short. He must have the rest of it with the dear ones in the home.

What need to describe the details of the afternoon? Robert Hardy had the joy of knowing that all his children were with him, and at dark James came over and asked if he might join the circle. He did not know all that Mr. Hardy had gone through, but the children had told him enough to make him want to be with the family.

"Why, come right in and join the circle, Jim. You're one of us," cried Mr. Hardy cheerfully. So Jim drew up his chair, and the conversation went on.

"Did you not hear some one calling?"

They were sitting in the up stairs room where Clara lay and facing an open fire. The doctor had called in the middle of the afternoon and brought two other skilled surgeons and physicians at Mr. Hardy's request. It was a singular case, and nothing special could be done. This was the unanimous opinion after deep consultation, and after remaining some time the doctors had withdrawn.

When it grew dark, Alice started to turn on the lights, but her father said, "Let us sit in the firelight." So they drew close together and in awe looked upon him who seemed so sure that God would call him away at midnight. Who shall recount the words that were uttered, the exact sentences spoken, the fears and hopes and petitions and tears of the wife, the commands of the father to his boys to grow up into the perfect manhood in Jesus Christ, the sweet words of love and courage that passed between him and his wife and daughters? These things cannot be described; they can only be imagined.

So the night passed. It was after 11 o'clock, when the conversation had almost ceased and all were sitting hushed in a growing silence, that Clara spoke again, so suddenly and clearly that they were all startled and awed by it:

"Father! Mother! Where have I been? I have had such a dream! Where are you? Where am I?"

Mrs. Hardy arose and, with tears streaming down her face, kneeled beside the bed and in a few words recalled Clara to her surroundings. The girl had come out of her strange unconsciousness with all her faculties intact. Gradually she recalled the past, the accident, the dream of her father. She smiled happily on them all, and they for awhile forgot the approach of midnight and its possible meaning to Mr. Hardy—all but himself. He kneeled by the bed, at the side of his wife, and thanked God that his dear one was restored.

Suddenly he rose to his feet and spoke aloud, quietly, but clearly:

"Did you not hear some one calling?"

His face was pale, but peaceful. He bent down and kissed Clara, embraced his sons, drew his wife to him and placed his hand on Bessie's head; then, as if in answer to a command, he gently kneeled down again by his chair, and as his lips moved in prayer the clock struck once more the hour of 12. He continued kneeling there, and he was nearer God than he had ever been in all his life before.

Thus Robert Hardy's seven days came to an end.

QUESTIONS ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of appendicitis, nervous prostration or heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling ill and bad with headaches and othaches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you For sale by Grissom & Fordham.

SEVEN RUNNING SORES CURED

—BY—

Johnston's Sarsaparilla

QUART BOTTLES.

THE GREAT SPRING MEDICINE.

JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA as a Blood Food and Nerve Energizer, is the greatest SPRING MEDICINE ever discovered. It comes as a rich blessing from heaven to the "worn out," the run down, the overworked and debilitated. That "tired feeling," those "sinking spells," the languor and despondency which arise from badly nourished nerves, from thin, vitiated blood and an underfed body, vanish as if by a magic spell. The weariness, lassitude and nervous prostration which accompany the spring time and the heat of summer, are conquered and banished at once. For every form of neurasthenia, and all ailments of the brain and nerve, insomnia, hysteria and nervousness generally, it is almost a specific. It furnishes the very elements to rebuild worn-out nerve tissues. It feeds brain, nerve centers and nerves, calming and equalizing their action; it makes rich, red, honest blood. Newness of life, new hope, new strength follow its faithful use. It makes the weak strong, and the old young again.

It was the antiquated (but now happily exploded) method in the good old times, to treat Salt Rheum, Scrofula, Cancer and other troublesome disorders arising from BLOOD TAINT with powerful alteratives, such as mercury, arsenic and other mineral agents. It was expected by this treatment that the poison could be killed while the blood was left to course through its channels holding in its circulation the specific germs of the disease. But in this way, every part of the body became more or less diseased. Nothing can be more terrible than a horribly destructive blood taint. It not only attacks virulently the different structures of the body, but many times the bones are honey-combed and destroyed. It often seeks out the nerves and spinal cord, and again it will bring decay and death to some vital organ, as the kidneys, liver or stomach. There is only one scientific method for the cure of blood taint. That is, PURIFICATION! Every particle of the blood must be removed through the excretory channels, the lungs, kidneys, bowels, liver and skin. "First pure, then peaceable." The great restorative, reconstructive and vitalizer of the blood, JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, not only radically and exhaustively removes the taint, but also removes all mercury, calomel and other minerals, and fills the veins and arteries with the ruby, glowing current of vitality. "The blood is the life." Good health means pure blood. The old and reliable remedy, JOHNSTON'S SARSAPARILLA, is universally regarded as the greatest Blood Purifier ever discovered. This fact is now established beyond question or cavil.

TWO MEN REPORTED KILLED.

STRIKERS STILL STICKING GRIMLY TO THEIR TASK.

Wreck Reported at Huntsville, Ala. Last Night—Railroad People Appear to be Indifferent.

So far as visible signs go in this city or with the Southern Railroad's business at this point, a stranger would never know that a strike exists. Railroad people, indeed, say there is no strike but that only a few telegraph operators quit, and their places are being filled about as fast as they quit. Certain it is that passenger trains are running on this division with usual regularity.

Mr. Jno. F. Swain, of St. Louis, is in charge of the strike in this section, with headquarters at Clegg's Hotel. He talks encouragingly of the strikers' chance of winning out in the end and boldly asserts that the situation daily and hourly grows brighter and that each day adds more men to the long list who have already struck. He is in Reidsville this afternoon working on those who are still holding their posts at the keyboard, trying to induce them to join the strike.

Mr. Swain this morning received a message from President Powell reporting a wreck at Huntsville, Ala., in which an engineer were killed. Details are not given and it is not known whether it was a collision or whether rails were torn up. Mr. Swain also has reports to the effect that the railroad people have offered the strikers at Salisbury $10 to $15 more per month to go back to work than they were getting before. The strikers still claim that 90 per cent of railway telegraphers are out and the railroad people still claim that less than 10 per cent are out, showing a wide discrepancy.

Night before last the wires at Graham were cut, and superintendent O'Brien offers a reward of $500 for the arrest of each man guilty of such depredations. Deputies have been stationed at the company's offices here and at other places to keep the strikers from entering or in any way interfering with those who are at their posts.

While there is such a wide difference in the statements of the opposing factions it is difficult to predict with any show of accuracy just what the outcome will be.

ORANGE PRESBYTERY.

The 260th Session Opens Tomorrow Night at Westminster.

The 260th session of Orange Presbytery convenes tomorrow night at Westminster Presbyterian church in this city, and will last until the last of the week, adjourning perhaps, on Friday night.

Mr. Knowles has many friends here who will regret to learn of his death.

The Handys in Lecture, Song and Story.

At the Graded School Hall on tomorrow night Mr. Sidney Handy will present Milton's Paradise Lost in all its beauty grandeur and sublimity. Accompanying the rendition are Dore's superb views—a grand scenic production. Mr. Kingman Handy will appear in monologues and impersonations which are of a high order and are at all times enthusiastically received. His audience will be kept in a constant state of merriment.

To Meet General Toon in Style

Mr. C. P. Vanstory, the liveryman, says that he is going to meet his old friend, General Toon, tomorrow and escort him from the depot in style. He says he is going to hitch to the finest carriage obtainable four handsome horses, and from the head of the leaders to the carriage hang a long streamer, on one side of which in large letters will be the word "Education," and on the other "White Supremacy." In this carriage will ride General Toon, the nominee for Superintendent of Public instruction.

The candidates spoke in Burlington today. They will speak in Winston tomorow night, and arrive here at 6:10 tomorrow afternoon.

SATURDAY'S GAME.

Carolina Wins Over Oak Ridge in a Close Contest.

Carolina, the University team, won the game of ball over Oak Ridge here Saturday, by a score of 6 to 4. There was an unusually large attendance at the park and rooters were about evenly divided in number. The leading feature of the game was in the second inning when Graves, for Carolina, put a ball over the fence just inside third base and made a home run. Lawson, the Carolina pitcher, did great work and won the game for his team.

Howard, pitcher for Oak Ridge, did not appear at his best, but was in the game, as the score shows. Wicker, for Oak Ridge, did the best work on the team He played good ball and came out of the game without an error to his discredit. He is a coming player.

SLATES MADE AND SMASHED.

SOME THINGS TALKED AT REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS.

The Difference in the Democratic Way and the Republican Way of Selecting State Tickets.

Republican headquarters in this city is busy figuring on who will be the candidates on the state ticket and how to defeat the constitutional amendment put forward by the democratic party. It is pretty certain that the managers are about as much at sea regarding one proposition as the other. In the republican party there are numbers of men who question the good politics of opposing the amendment as a party and though a stiff bluff is put up it may be put down as a fact that the republican party is by no means a unit in opposition to it. It may be said as truthfully that many white republicans will vote against the amendment who at heart are in favor of it and who believe it should be adopted.

Just at this time it may be stated as a matter of fact that the headquarters of republican state politics is in Washington—in Senator Pritchard's rooms. Prominent politicians of that party are frequent visitors to Washington, and it is there that slates are being made and sent down for the managers here to send out feelers through the different districts. Word was sent out from Senator Pritchard's mill Saturday that the present secretary of state, Dr. Cyrus Thompson, would head the republican ticket, with either Judge Spencer B. Adams or Mr. Hezekiah Gudger as a running mate. It was suggested that Mr. Linney might possibly be given a place on the ticket.

Along with the same message came the statement that there would be no fusion. This would seem as if Dr. Thompson was no longer a populist, but had gone bodily into the republican camp.

The above scheme is not regarded with too great favor at republican headquarters in this city. The slate is smashed and instead of either Judge Adams or Mr. Gudger it is now the program to put Mr. D. A. Long, of Graham, on the ticket as lieutenant governor. Mr. Long spent about sixteen years as president of Antioch College, Yellowstone Springs, Ohio, and is said to be a "friend of Hanna." If this be so he will be the man. Mr. Long several times canvassed Ohio for the republican ticket and is regarded as a big speaker. Before going to Ohio he was president of the Graham Normal, the old Christian college, after the burning of which Elon College was established.

It is known that Mr. Linney will not take just anything. He will have the nomination for governor or nothing It leaks out from headquarters here that he has about as many chances as Dr. Thompson. He is already considered as defeated for a congressional renomination and his name will most likely not be presented to the convention. The republicans want the nearest match for Aycock on the stump they can get, and many regard the "bull of the brushes" as the best they can get.

The present lieutenant-governor, C. A. Reynolds, is hungry and wants a place on the ticket. It is said he has been slated for corporation commissioner. But all is not settled yet. More slating will have to be done before the names finally agreed upon will be ratified in convention.

And we will just here notice the difference in which the democratic party chose its candidates. The people in the convention named them. Outside of the candidate for governor, when the great throng of delegates went to Raleigh last week no man could tell who would be on the ticket, and Aycock was so near the unanimous choice of all the democrats of the State, from every section, that all others who had aspirations withdrew in favor of him.

THE BEGINNING.

Small Items That Start Off the Week's News.

Remember the cantata at West Market Street Church tonight.

Guilford and the University of Tennessee play ball on the former's grounds Thursday of this week.

Mr. R. P. Walters, insurance man, has moved to 118 South Elm street, Hotel Guilford building, where he will be glad to see his friends.

Today is a model one for Easter picnics, and many hack loads of young people have gone to the country to cast their fishing lines.

Tom Beall's pony was kicked by a horse Saturday afternoon, sustaining injuries which made it necessary to have it killed. It is a serious loss and we sympatnize with Tom.

A citizen asked a reporter this morning if he knew where he could get a good, strong four-horse wagon. He said his little boy had gone a-fishing and he wanted a vehicle strong enough to bring in the load.

The cantata, "Christ the Victor, is a beautiful service with which to close the Easter period. No one can afford to miss this service. No admission fee will be charged, but a collection will be taken, half of which will go to the organ fund of West Market Street Church.

William Worth Dead.

Mr. William Worth, son of Mr. Joseph Worth, who lives near High Point, died in Savannah, Ga., yesterday and the remains arrived here this morning, where they were taken in charge by Undertaker Smith and carried to Guilford College for interment. The funeral services were conducted in Friends' church at Guilford College at ten o'clock and the body was laid to rest in the quiet old Quaker graveyard there. Deceased went to Savannah several months ago, and being in bad health returned home but did not remain long. He became dissatisfied and went back to Savannah, thinking his health would improve there, but he only lived a few months. He was about 25 years of age.

Little Child Dead.

Little Martha Julia Savage, aged 3 years and 1 month, died of meningitis at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Savage, on South Elm street yesterday about one o'clock. Mr. Savage was formerly a citizen of Wilmington, living later at Rocky Mount, coming to Greensboro last July. He is an employee of the Southern Railway. The remains of the little one were carried to Rocky Mount for interment, the stricken parents leaving on their sad mission at midnight last night, accompanied by Rev. L. Johnson, pastor of the Baptist church.

Auction Sale of Small Farms.

Having had so many inquiries for small tracts of land in and near the city suitable for truck farms and grass lots, we have decided to have a closing out sale of the remainder of the Vanbokelin land on Thursday afternoon, April 19th., at 3 o'clock.

We will sell these tracts in sizes ranging from three to twenty acres, to the highest bidder on the following terms: One-third cash, one-third in six months and one-third in twelve months, deferred payments bearing interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

This is sooner than we expected to have a sale, but prospective buyers want land in time to plant crops this spring. There has never been a sale of this kind here and we are going to try to meet the wants of a large class of buyers.

We have a number of choice lots left and if any one wants one on the day of the sale we can put it up. but we shall make a special effort to dispose of a large number of small farms. We hope to see a large crowd on the ground at the hour of sale. We will detain you only long enough to give you an opportunity to make a purchase in this growing city, which you will never regret.

Hacks will be on hand to take you to the sale free of charge

Sale to commence at the bridge below Kirkpatrick's old brick yard

Land in Greensboro will not always be as cheap as it is now and he who is wise will take advantage of this sale.

Next to the Consumer is where we stand in the lumber business. At the kicking post, as it were, in regard to prices.

First comes the owner of the timber. He just woke up to the value of it and wants double last year's prices. Then the sawmill man. He has not been making a fortune and thinks now he should share a little in the general prosperity

They say to us: "We must have so much for our trees and work." After a while it is "up to you." Don't kick. You don't suppose we have nerve enough to put up prices unless they had first been put up on us. No, indeed. But prices are NOT high. They have been to low and are just now getting reasonable. Your children will be glad to build at double the price is now costs you. It is a trite, but true saying, if you want to build, "Now is the time."

And ours is the place to get the stuff.

A Great Strike

On high prices was made for this section when we opened our store a little more than one year ago, and thousands have been benefitted by it. And we shall continue to keep good goods at honest prices. We are today employing more clerks, paying more freight and selling more goods than any other two houses. Don't be odd from other folks, but come and take a look through each department. Largest stock of dress goods, silks, lawns, dimities, nainsooks, linings, trimmings, hosiery, handkerchiefs, ribbons, notions, etc., to be seen in North Carolina.

Shoes, Slippers and Clothing

We are strictly in the swim. Suits $1.98; blue and black serge at $6.00 and $7.00 worth $8 to $10. 5e inch all pure linen damask at 50c Doilies from 48 cents per dozen up. The school children say their money buys more goods here than elsewhere; they have tried us - why not you.
